FRIDAY EVENING NOVEMBER 18.

DR. H. T. HELMBOLD.—Dr. H. T. Helmbold, whose name, on millions of bottles of patent medicine, has gone abroad throughout the earth, stood a prisoner in Jefferson Market Court, in New York, Tuesday. It has been for years the general impression that he was dead. The last heard of him was as an inmate of a Philadelphia asylum. Of recent years he has lived quietly in New York. Tuesday, calling at the Hoffman House, he drank wine with a number of friends, and left the hotel, intending to go home, but instead took a Fifth Avenue stage going down town. He disembarked at Washington Square, where he fell several times in the mud. An officer took charge of him and led him to court. He was spattered with mud and still under the influence of drink. At the suggestion of Dr. Helmbold's son Justice Duffy sent the prisoner to Bellevue Hospital. "God!" cried the doctor, "if they take me to Bellevue they'll kill me. Take me home, like a good fellow." He would not enter the ambulance at all until promised that he should be taken home. Dr. Helmbold's ruling passion, after he had attained wealth and fame through his medicines, was a love for fine horses and clothes. The turnouts with which he rode up and down the avenue were the envy of the city. In 1871, while in Europe, he began to show signs of insanity, and afterwards, at Long Branch, attempted suicide by shooting. After several months' treatment in Bloomingdale Asylum he was removed to Killbuck's Asylum, in Philadelphia, whence he escaped in July, 1876, but was recaptured and kept under treatment. At present his malady is not considered serious. He still has an interest in several proprietary medicines.

Professional Etiquette

prevents some doctors from advertising their skill, but we are bound by no such conventional rules and think that if we make a discovery that is of benefit to our fellows, we ought to spread the fact to the whole land. Therefore we cause to be published throughout the land the fact that Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is the best known remedy for consumption (scrofula of the lungs) and kindred diseases. Read 10 cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's complete treatise on consumption, with unsurpassed means of self treatment. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main street, Buffalo, N. Y.

LEGAL.

VIRGINIA: At Rules held in the Clerk's office of the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, on the 7th day of November, 1887.
Mary A. Finch vs. The heirs of William J. Cross, whose names are unknown, Charles E. Stuart, and Ruth Stuart, his wife, Richard H. Stuart, and Stuart, his wife, Catharine H. Stuart, Robert L. Stuart, Meta Bolling and Bartlett Bolling, her husband. In chancery.
Memo. The object of this suit is to obtain a decree in the above-entitled cause substituting and appointing a new trustee in the place and stead of Charles E. Stuart, deceased, under a certain deed bearing date on the 20th day of December, 1858, executed by William J. Cross to the said Charles E. Stuart, and directing the trustee so substituted and appointed to convey to the said Mary A. Finch the legal title to a certain tenement and lot of ground situate in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, on the west side of St. Asaph street, between Orleans and Prince streets, and fronting on St. Asaph street twenty feet and running back between one hundred and twenty and one hundred and twenty-three feet, more or less, which was conveyed by the said William J. Cross to the said Charles E. Stuart by the deed aforesaid upon certain trusts in the said deed mentioned and set forth.

The defendants, the heirs of the said William J. Cross, deceased, whose names are not known, not having entered their appearance and given security, according to the act of Assembly and the rules of this Court, and it appearing by an affidavit that the names of the heirs of William J. Cross are unknown—
It is ordered that the said defendants appear here within one month after due publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect their interest in this suit, and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, once a week for four successive weeks, and posted at the front door of the Court House of this city. A copy—test:
JOHN S. BEACH, Clerk.

Alexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the EIGHTY SEVEN YEARS of its existence. Its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshop it has become invaluable.

The GAZETTE has better facilities for obtaining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dispatches from every part of the world; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe. Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and fifteen hours earlier than the morning papers.

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs in and near the city, and this feature will, as ever, receive careful attention.

Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily increasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition—nearly as large as the daily—is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, apparent.

Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with merchants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other centres.
